The lawyers of Bell & James work as a team handling complex matters throughout the Southeast. The firm's cases typically involve serious physical injuries or economic harm caused by defective products, environmental wrongs, toxic torts, consumer fraud, industrial injuries and motor vehicle wrecks. The firm values community and legal service. John Bell has served as President of Georgia Trial Lawyers, Chairman of the Augusta State University Foundation, Chairman of the Richmond County Board of Health and is a recipient of the Georgia Bar's Distinguished Service and Tradition of Excellence awards. He is admitted to practice in Georgia and South Carolina. Pam James has served as President of the Augusta Bar Association, President of the Board for Georgia Legal Services, a member of the Georgia Ethics Commission and as an elector for Georgia in 2004. She is admitted to practice in Georgia and Florida.
