Will Sellers: YMCA's 'Man of the Year'

Local attorney Will Sellers was named the 60th "YMCA Man of the Year" Monday night at Trinity Presbyterian Church Trinity Hall.

Many of Montgomery's civic leaders were honored at the annual banquet. YMCA Clubs and branches nominated more than 25 men and women from the Montgomery area.

Sellers has been a YMCA board member and volunteer for several years. He is a member of the YMCA Metro Board where he serves as chairman of the Finance Committee. Sellers is a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church. He is an attorney with Balch & Bingham in Montgomery and his wife Lee live have three children.

The "Man of the Year" program is planned and executed by teens from throughout Montgomery.

Dakin Hill of Trinity and Mary Parrish Cobb of LAMP, both high school seniors, served as co-chairmen of the Man of the Year Committee this year.

Gene Crane, a local banker, was named the YMCA Man of the Year at last year's program. Crane was the speaker for this year's banquet.
