

CONSTRUCTION LITIGATION

Resolved construction defect claims for payment of $1 million by a general contractor, developer and architect to compensate homeowners in an Atlanta condominium for waterproofing and structural problems with the building.

Resolved construction defect claims for payment of $1 million by a general contractor and architect to compensate homeowners for water leaks and mold.

Obtained a judgment establishing a homeowners' association failure to address construction defects that led to water leaks and damage.

Defended a claim by an excavator who struck our client's natural gas line.

Represent contractors and developers in defense of construction defect and warranty claims.

Resolved construction defect claims for payment of $1.375 million by the general contractor, developer, and architect to compensate homeowners in an Atlanta condominium for waterproofing and structural problems with the building.