

NUISANCE

Represent quarry owners in nuisance actions filed by nearby landowners.

Successfully defended developer of a single-family subdivision against neighbor's nuisance, trespass and environmental statutory claims related to storm water discharges.

Won a jury trial on behalf of Lake Hartwell, Georgia homeowners against the owners of a nearby motocross track. The jury found that the public operation of the motocross track was nuisance.

Advised developer of a lakefront golf/resort community on compliance with local, state and federal wetlands, stream protection, National Environmental Policy Act and endangered species law.

Represented real estate developer in connection with multiple lawsuits concerning site development, environmental permitting, tree removal.

Represent variety of landowners in fee trespass, real property damage, nuisance, title and ownership, and easement encroachment disputes.

.