Seminar Highlights

Do you have the latest and most effective strategies for preventing and responding to government investigations?

One of the most unsettling events a health care professional or provider can experience is unexpected or uninvited government intrusion or scrutiny. This seminar will educate you on various types of government scrutiny and intrusion that occur in the health care arena and familiarize you with the various types of federal and Georgia government agencies that operate in Georgia to regulate health care professionals and providers. You will also learn about the types of methods these government agencies use to scrutinize health care professionals and providers. You and your company will also stay current on the various steps you can take to design appropriate compliance plans, policies and procedures for preventing and handling government intrusion and scrutiny.

Benefits for You

- · Find out what you need to know about state and federal health care agencies
- Navigate recent developments in False Claims Act litigation
- Decipher Georgia's new False Medicaid Claims
- · Know what to do when FBI agents are at the door
- · Adhere to compliance program guidelines recently issued by OIG
